

Di Vine Tours presents:

FIU'S COOKING IN CENTRAL ITALY with CHEF MORAN

Spring Break Escapade
March 9 - 18, 2012

Explore Italy's Heartland like never before and learn all about the world-famous ingredients that can only come from this area. Prosciutto di Parma, Balsamico di Modena, Parmiggiano-Reggiano... all whilst also discovering Tuscany's famous wines and foods. We will visit famous wineries, enjoy cooking lessons in the city of Florence and more! A luxurious getaway for all the senses. Be prepared to indulge in the best locally produced foods of Bologna and some of Italy's most scenic destinations.

Michael J. Moran has been a chef instructor at the School of Hospitality Management since 1991. Prior to joining the faculty, Professor Moran led a distinguished career as a chef in the United States and abroad. Career highlights include, chef de cuisine at Chef Allen's Restaurant and Executive Chef at Bella Luna Restaurant, two top rated South Florida venues. Professor Moran also was the Executive Chef for King Hussein and Queen Noor of Jordan, and held positions at such prestigious establishments as Windows on the World and La Reserve in New York City.

Culinary Delights: Visits to Prosciutto and Parmesan Cheese producers, Wine and Balsamic Vinegar producers, special Hands On Cooking Lessons, Gelato tasting, Market visits and more...

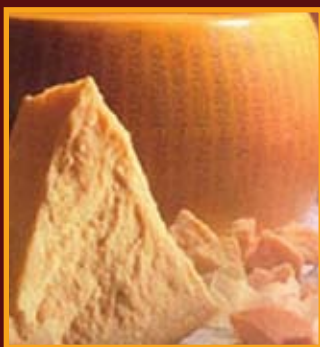

Art/Culture Exploration: Bologna's historical center, complete city tour of Florence, visits to Montalcino, Chianti, and Rufina Countryside.

Regions covered: Emilia-Romagna and Tuscany.

Complete Land Program includes: 9days/ 8night hotel accommodations, hotel taxes & service charges, deluxe bus transportation, English -speaking guide, daily buffet breakfast, daily meals with wines, private city tours, museum entrances, private winery visits, cooking classes and activities as specified in the program.

Program begins in Florence and ends in Bologna.
All City center hotels.

Price USD 2,500 pp dbl occ based on min group of 15 pax.

Design by ProGrqphDesign.com

Register Immediately: info@divinetours.com • USA 305.274.7067 • www.divinetours.com